

THE ASIAN WORKSHOP ON POLYMER PROCESSING 2007

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

HOTEL RIVIERA
Daejeon, Korea
October 21-24, 2007

The Asian Workshop on Polymer Processing 2007 will be held in Hotel Riviera, Daejeon, Korea from 21st to 24th of October, 2007. The workshop is organized by the Japan Society of Polymer Processing (JSPP) and hosted by the Korean Society of Rheology (KSR). This is the first time to arrange the workshop for the specific field of polymer processing between Korea and Japan. The purpose of this workshop is to communicate the experience and to enhance the friendship for the future of Asian network. All the researchers and engineers working in the field of polymer processing, especially working for the companies, are welcome to participate in this workshop. For the Japanese participants, the excursion to LG Chemical research center and one of historical place of Baekje Kingdom will be arranged.

Authors are invited to submit abstracts for either oral or poster presentation. The separate Abstract submission form should be filled and sent to the Workshop Secretariat via e-mail (ksr@ksr.or.kr) by July 31, 2007. The abstract must be written and presented in English and should be approximately 200 words. (Only the abstract is needed for this workshop!)

TECHNICAL SESSIONS

The workshop will be divided into two parallel sessions over the two days (22nd and 23rd). Session titles are as below:

- Electronic Materials and Processing
- High Performance Polymers
- Extrusion and Injection Molding
- Rheology and Rheometry
- General Topics
